1. Read the following passage :

P.T. Usha was born on 27th June 1964 at Payyoli, a village in the Payyoli district of Kerala. Though Usha was affected by ill health in her early childhood, her promise in sports could be clearly noticed. Against all odds, she succeeded in becoming one of the greatest atheletes India has ever produced. She made her first national record (in the 100 metres sprint) in 1977, when she was just 13 years old.

P.T. Usha could not perform to her ability in the 1980 Moscow Olympics. Even in the 1982 New Delhi Asiad, she could only win silver medals in the100 metres and the 200 metres sprint. However, at the Asian Track and Field (ATF) Championship in Kuwait a year later, Usha won the gold medal in the 400 metres race with a Asian record. Thereafter, Usha picked up 13 gold medals at the ATF meets that were held between 1983 to 1989. She finished first in the semi-finals in the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics, but faltered in the finals.
