READING COMPREHENSION (SEEN)

1. Read the passage carefully :

Begum Rokeya was a remarkable woman whose efforts considerably changed the state of female education in Bengal. Her full name was Begum Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain. She was kind and generous to the disadvantaged women of Bengal, and extended her helping hand to the poor and the helpless. She was the pioneer in setting up a school for the poor Muslim girls of Bengal. She strongly believed in the need of modern education for women.

Begum Rokeya was born in an affluent Muslim family. Though she never went to school, Rokeya educated herself through her own efforts. She learnt Arabic and Persian at home and also received lessons in Bengali and English. She wrote extensively on the need for social reforms. Some of her famous books include Sultana's Dream, Motichur and Padmarag. Rokeya had immense faith in women's power and proclaimed that without the help of women, a family can never stand. Begum Rokeya was a strong humanist. She had a deep belief in the inherent unity of our nation.
